In addition to cash fees, the copyright business brings each year to the Government, in articles deposited, property to the value of many thousands of dollars. During the past fiscal year 242,689 such articles were received. The value of those drawn up into the collections of the Library far exceeded the amount of the net cash earnings. On July 6, 1932, the books of the Copyright Office were balanced for June, the accounts for the year closed, and the financial statements completed for the Treasury Department, showing that all earned fees to June 30 had been paid
